Michael Harrison resolves his clients' matters by taking a deep investigative dive into the facts of each case, which contributes to his successful outcomes. His practice focuses on New York Labor Law and premises liability cases, representing general contractors, sub-contractors, property owners and businesses. He also handles medical malpractice cases on behalf of medical professionals and facilities, such as rehabilitation centers. A former intern for the Honorable Richard Ambro in the Suffolk County Supreme Court and the Honorable Leonard Wexler of the Eastern District of New York, Michael had a front-row seat to the bench's perspective on cases, which he draws on when representing clients. He is experienced at handling all aspects of a case up until trial and is known for his persuasive legal writing skills. Education Touro College Jacob D.
